Re-elected and new members of the 2019-2020 Board of Directors

Nadia Smaili
New board member

Parkinson arrived earlier in our family. I was just 12 years old and my father was 47 years old. We laughed and cried because of this disease. I grew up with it and discovered another facet of my father's personality (dedication to family, courage and hope). Today my father is gone, but it is still there in other families. I join you for this cause. My name is Nadia Smaili, daughter of a Parkinsonian.

Nadia Smaili is a full professor in the accounting department of ESG UQAM. She is an associate member at the Chair in Business Law and International Trade (University of Montréal) and member of CIRANO and the Chair of Financial and Organizational Information (ESG UQAM).

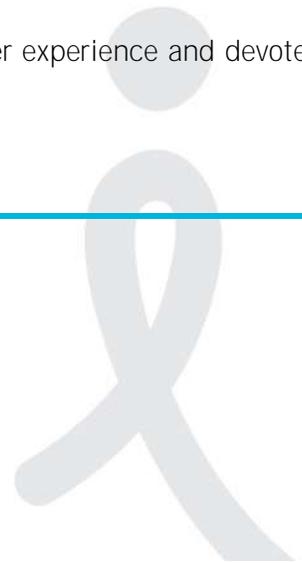

Chantal Laurin
Re-elected

Chantal S. Laurin has more than 40 years' management experience at various companies. She worked in aviation for Transports Canada and then under an ADM as General Manager of the Airport of Montreal. Ms. Laurin also worked for Hydro-Québec, first as internal auditor then as a sector manager. Lastly, she finished out her career as Executive Director of SigmaSanté, a not-for-profit organization with the goal of ensuring the needs of health and social services organizations in Montreal and Laval are pooled to optimize the procurement process and reduce costs.

Ms. Laurin has a Bachelor's degree in pedagogy and a degree in business administration from HEC.

Ms. Laurin has left the paid workforce. She is still active and now wants to use her experience and devote her time to a cause that is important to her.

She has been a member of the Parkinson Québec Board of Directors since 2015.

Mélanie Grenier
Re-elected

Melanie Grenier has a degree in psychosociology from UQAM, a human resources certificate and an MBA in management consulting and has worked in human resources for close to 20 years. She currently works as Human Resources Director for a major company in the film industry.

She has been a member of the Parkinson Québec Board of Directors since 2015. She participates in and helps to carry out Parkinson Québec's mission, a cause that is close to her heart.

She is looking for a new mandate that will allow her to continue her involvement and contribute her skills to the Board of Directors.

Paul Dupré
Re-elected

Paul F. Dupré is a retired senior corporate executive from the international Olympic movement. A versatile manager, he is renowned for his ability to organize and select athletes for the Olympic Games, World Championships and other major sports events. He was a leading member of multiple Canadian overseas delegations.

He has served as an expert witness before Canadian parliamentary committees, the Canadian commission of inquiry into doping and many disputes involving Canadian and foreign athletes. He was a member of the Sport Medicine & Science Council of Canada, the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport and several international working groups. He received the Commemorative Medal of the Governor General of Canada in recognition of his significant contribution to the wellbeing of his fellow Canadians, to his community and to Canada.

Mr. Dupré has been a member of the Parkinson Québec Board of Directors since 2015 and has been its Chair since 2017.

Gérald Bouffard
Re-elected

Gérald Bouffard has extensive experience in the agrifood industry, having held management positions in sales, distribution systems and strategic corporate operations. With more than 33 years of service at PepsiCo, which is the second leading company in the food products sector worldwide, he has worked in different parts of Canada and the United States. He hails from Montreal, where he started his career, and has also lived in Boston, Toronto and Halifax, playing management roles in the company.

He is an experienced manager focused on achieving sustained positive results through a high standard of integrity, the development of people, unconditional respect for others as well as ongoing partnership with his professional circle.

He has a university degree in business management and marketing.

Mr. Bouffard is passionate about team work. His work ethic is built around great self-discipline and approaching each day with a positive mindset.

He has been a member of the Parkinson Québec board of directors since 2017.

Joseph Bartlett
Re-elected

Joseph Bartlett started off his career working at PwC in the Assurance practice before switching to the Capital Markets and Accounting Advisory department. Joseph currently works at Lightspeed HQ as Manager, Financial Reporting where he acts as the financial reporting and technical accounting expert along with working on the company's IPO readiness. Joseph is dedicated to giving back to a cause that he holds true to his heart.

He has been a member of the Parkinson Québec board of directors since 2017.
