Conditions of use of the TAVIE™ platform and its different applications

The conditions of use of the TAVIE™ platform aim to ensure that the platform and its applications are used properly and that the copyrights of each of the virtual interventions developed (French and English versions) under the leadership of José Côté, RN, PhD, holder of the Research Chair in Innovative Nursing Practices, of her partners and of all other copyright holders is respected pursuant to all applicable laws.

AUTHORIZED AND PROHIBITED USES

These conditions apply to all persons who wish to consult, develop or use, in whole or in part, a virtual intervention based on the TAVIE™ virtual intervention concept developed by José Côté and her partners, including the VIH-TAVIE™, TAVIE-Woman™, TRANSPLANT-TAVIE™, TAVIE@COEUR™, SOULAGE-TAVIE™, TAVIE en santé™, TAVIE en marche, Soulage TAVIE post-trauma, ÉPI-TAVIE et TAVIE en mouvement.

José Côté and her partners allow authorized persons to access the TAVIE™ platform to consult one or more of the virtual interventions solely for personal and non-commercial purposes. The authorized persons are allowed to consult the content thereof or to use one or more TAVIE™ web applications for study, teaching or research purposes and not for the profit of any person or organization, subject to the following:

No person consulting a TAVIE™ web application shall under any circumstance:

1. delete or modify the content (e.g., texts, videos, animations) of a virtual intervention, including its technical functionalities and the algorithms underlying its structure;
 2. make digital copies or print interventions systematically;
 3. use, for any reason whatsoever, any spider software in order to make digital copies or print interventions systematically;
 4. download or distribute the intervention, in whole or in part, on any digital network, including any network accessed via internet.

When authorization is granted by José Côté, an access code and a password shall be assigned to the authorized person (hereafter referred to as “authorized user”), thereby affording him/her access to the virtual intervention of his/her choice. The duration of this authorization for consultation purposes shall be set based on the needs expressed and after agreement is reached between the two parties.

Only the authorized user shall be allowed, for consultation purposes only, to:

1. search, consult and post the available documents relative to the TAVIE™ virtual intervention concept and its applications;
2. save a digital copy of the documents or sections thereof for personal purposes;
3. print single copies of documents or sections thereof;
4. distribute single copies of documents or sections thereof in hardcopy or digital format to other authorized users or for teaching purposes.

It is understood that no copy of documents or software relative the TAVIE™ virtual intervention concept and its applications shall be redistributed without prior authorization.

Moreover, written authorization is required from José Côté should a person wish to:

1. modify, adapt or translate, in whole or in part, a virtual intervention created on the basis of the TAVIE™ concept;
2. disseminate, distribute or sell, in whole or in part, documents relative to the TAVIE™ virtual intervention concept and its applications (e.g., articles, source documents, tables, user guides) to persons other than authorized users;
3. use the TAVIE™ virtual intervention concept and its applications, including the various logos thereof, for the purposes of oral or poster presentations;
4. market an application derived from the TAVIE™ virtual intervention concept. In this event, the person shall be referred to a representative of Axelys, a management firm whose mission it is to develop and valorize discoveries made in university settings, by forging ties with industry. The aim is to accelerate the transfer of results from research to industry while ensuring that the interests of the researchers are protected;
5. in all of the situations mentioned above, the authorized user undertakes to cite in references the names of the authors (designers) and to indicate the name of the Université de Montréal Research Chair in Innovative Nursing Practices or to affix its logo and that of Université de Montréal.

For any other requests, please contact José Côté by email at jose.cote@umontreal.ca.

Copyright

All of the documents and software regarding the TAVIE™ virtual intervention concept and its different applications are protected by copyrights held by José Côté and her partners or third parties and can be used only through formal authorization or licenses stipulating the terms and conditions of their use.

For further information, the authorized user is asked to contact José Côté in writing at jose.cote@umontreal.ca.

José Côté and her partners reserve the right to change or update the terms and conditions of use. If so, the authorized user shall be advised of the new provisions and shall have 30 days to accept or refuse them.

ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

The conditions of use of the _____ (name of intervention) virtual intervention and the agreement entered into between the authorized user and José Côté are governed by the laws of the Province of Quebec (Canada) that apply to agreements of the sort. In the event of a dispute over the interpretation, application, effective date or duration of this agreement, the parties agree to submit the matter to an independent arbitrator in order to find a fair solution for both parties.

I have read and understood all the conditions laid out in this document and I undertake to comply with the conditions accompanying the authorization granted me aimed at:

- describing the project, the mutual responsibilities and, if any, the fees that would require the commitment of resources on the part of the Research Chair in Innovative Nursing Practices (include an annex if necessary):

- specifying the duration/dates of the authorization: _____

Any other request shall be subject to a new authorization.

In my capacity as head of the project submitted to José Côté, I accept the conditions of use granted me and the fees inherent to the development of my project (if any).
